

ALLIES MAKE HOLLAND ACCOUNTABLE FOR KAISER WHO IS NOW REPORTED RETURNING TO GERMANY

FORBES DENIES ON STAND ALL CHARGES MADE

Makes Sweeping and Absolute Statement That Accusations Untrue

Washington, Nov. 13.—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the U. S. Veterans Bureau today began "beating back" against wholesale charges of graft, waste and inefficiency in his administration of federal aid to disabled soldiers.

Arising from a sick bed, Forbes took the witness stand in his own defense before the senatorial investigating committee and entered "a general sweeping and absolute denial" of all accusations against his integrity. He charged his enemies with fomenting a conspiracy to destroy him through "perjury, and suppression of material facts."

Forbes scathingly attacked Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, former White House physician, and head of the federal hospital board, charging him with constant interference with the bureau's work.

"Most of the deficiencies in the administration of laws providing for relief of disabled soldiers," Forbes declared, "has been due to two things: politics and Sawyer."

Forbes flatly denied much of Sawyer's statement that he had been "fired by President Harding for insubordination in selling surplus supplies at Perryville."

On the contrary, Forbes declared, he retired from office a month before the Perryville incident, after having told President Harding he would rather resign than stay "if Sawyer was to continue in office."

Forbes read his statement with visible effort before a committee room that was packed with spectators eager to hear him tell his own story. He denied specifically that he had ever turned a dishonest penny in administration of the bureau's affairs or that he engaged in "graft, liquor drinking and loose conduct in office."

"I admit there were imperfections in the bureau under my directorship," said Forbes, "but I do assert I have not consciously been guilty of any wrong doing by and of neglect."

URGES RELIEF FOR STARVING CHILDREN

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Coolidge was urged to ask congress to extend relief to the starving and undernourished children of Germany.

Representative Frank R. Funk of Illinois made the recommendation after a careful study of the situation on a recent visit to Germany. He would make $25,000,000 available for the purchase of food and ask Germany to arrange to finance an additional purchase of $24,000,000. The first sum would be put at the disposal of a committee headed by Major General Henry T. Allen, former commander of the American forces of occupation. With the co-operation of Charles G. Dawes, former director of the budget, this committee is now engaged in raising relief funds from private contributions.

Because the reparations commission would prevent the issuance of any government bonds to pay for food, Representative Funk asks that that congress authorize the war finance corporation to enter into negotiations with German municipalities. These municipalities could issue bonds, he said, which could be underwritten by the war finance corporation and used as collateral for the purchase of foods.

Introduce Vote of Censure Against the Government.

London, Nov. 13.—Premier Stanley Baldwin, officially announced today that the present Parliament will be dissolved on Friday. A general election will follow to choose a new Parliament.

Y. M. C. A. DESTROYED BY FIRE: IN CLEVELAND; TWO ARE INJURED

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Earl Staley, 35, of Canton, was overcome by smoke and carried from the building in an unconscious condition when fire destroyed the Wheeling and Lake Erie Y. M. C. A. here today. Byron Yoder, 41, Canton, suffered injuries when he jumped from a second story of the building to the street below.

Staley, an engineer, and Yoder, a fireman, were taken to city hospital.

The fire was discovered by R. E. Cox, a railroad fireman as he was dressing. He notified the clerk on duty, R. E. McCarthy, and then the two rushed through smoke and flame-filled corridors, awakening the sleeping men. Seven men saved themselves by jumping from windows but Yoder was the only man injured in the leap.

Staley was carried down a ladder by firemen after he had fallen unconscious on the floor of his room.

BURNING STEAMER SAVES TWO LIVES ON DESERTED ISLE

Port Clinton, Nov. 13.—Only the fact that the wooden steamer, Wessex, burned to the water's edge off Middle Sister Island yesterday, saved two fishermen, Martin Blossom and Harley Bass, both of Port Clinton, from probable death by starvation, it was revealed today.

The ship was beached on the island and its crew of eighteen men and a woman cook when they landed on the island found the two fishermen weak from starvation having been marooned for 104 hours. They were weak from lack of food. Shortly afterwards the steamer Connaut, which had sighted the burning vessel, took off the entire number and landed them in Sandwich, Ontario, the home port of the Wessex.

Blossom and Bass had been on their way back to Port Clinton from Detroit, piloting a power boat purchased by a Port Clinton man. The boat sprung a leak and they finally landed on Middle Sister Island, after a thrilling battle with waves and wind. They found no food except a few onions and carrots washed up by the waves.

MOVEMENT AGAINST MEXICAN REDS NEAR

Mexico City, Nov. 13.—In an attempt to put an end to the destructive activities of organized "red" labor, which is strongly entrenched throughout the federal district, an ultimatum has been delivered to the headquarters of the "reds" in this city by federal authorities. The action of the authorities followed close on the heels of the discovery of a quantity of dynamite in the gigantic electric power cable at Nacaza, which supplies this city with light and power. This is the second attempt to destroy the cable within a week, both attempts being frustrated by the vigilance of the federal troops stationed nearby. During the past week the "reds" have been circulating printed propaganda among the working classes in an attempt to inflame the minds of the masses against the army and police.

McClurkin, who has served as pastor of the Shady Side Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the largest church in that denomination, died at his home in that city, last Friday, from heart trouble, following an attack of pneumonia, according to word received in this city. The Rev. Mr. McClurkin had often visited in Xenia, and was well known throughout the denomination in this city and vicinity.

PARTIES AGREE

London, Nov. 13.—After years of factional dissension the British Liberal party today agreed upon a reunion. One section of the party had been led former Premier David Lloyd George; the other by former Premier H. H. Asquith. The reunion followed a conference of Lloyd George, Asquith, Sir Alfred Mond and Sir John Simon. The liberals intend to oppose the Tory party in the forthcoming election with a united front.

ARMY AND NAVY ASK FOR FUNDS FOR AIR FORCES

Joint Board Considers Plan—Program Is Announced

Washington, Nov. 13.—The joint board of the army and navy has submitted to Secretary of War Weeks and Secretary of the Navy Denby a report covering proposed army-navy air force building programs totaling about $45,000,000.

The report is based upon a careful study of American air defense problems and upon recommendations submitted by army and navy officers.

The purpose is to co-ordinate the development of the air forces of the army and navy and to establish a logical building program to meet the needs of air defense against attack by foreign nations.

Both the army and the navy programs were submitted simultaneously to the joint board for consideration. The army project calls for a 10-year construction program involving an annual appropriation of $25,000,000. This recommendation, according to the board of officers appointed by the war department, covers the minimum force necessary if the army is to perform its mission in protecting the country from invasion. Naval officers ask the adoption of a five-year program involving a total expenditure of approximately $100,000,000, or an average of $20,000,000 annually. The navy program is guided in part by the fact that two airplane carriers will be completed in two years hence. The recommendations of the navy are based upon the belief that the United States should maintain its "treaty fleet" at the highest efficiency. The $100,000,000 total includes not only supplying airplanes, but also the building up of air fleet bases at such points as Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and the Panama canal. After the completion of the five-year program, it is estimated, the navy will need about $20,000,000 annually to maintain its air force on an efficient basis.

Some differences have arisen within the war department because of the desire of Major General Patrick, chief of air service, for a Zeppelin. Secretary Weeks is not so enthusiastic as is General Patrick over the military possibilities of the Zeppelin. General Patrick would like to have an army Zeppelin built in Germany. If authority and funds can be obtained, it is possible that the war department will enter into negotiations with the American purchasers of the Zeppelin patents.

Without giving his approval, Mr. Weeks has transmitted the recommendations of the joint board to Secretary Denby for consideration. The secretary of war is particularly desirous of avoiding duplication of effort by the two services.

CHARGES TREACHERY AGAINST DICTATOR

Munich, Nov. 13.—General Erich Ludendorff charged Dictator Von Kahr with double dealing and treachery when he turned against Adolf Hitler and Ludendorff in the 18-hour revolution of Thursday and Friday. The motive attributed to the Bavarian dictator for his sudden switch is that Von Kahr did not desire the success of the German national movement, but wanted to turn it in favor of a south German monarchy.

Ludendorff was not wounded, did not commit suicide and was not killed on orders from Von Kahr, though all of these rumors were circulated. He is very much alive, and not even broken down or "utterly crushed," as variously reported.

KICKED TO DEATH BY HORSE

Van Wert, O., Nov. 13.—Charles Counsellor, 66, farmer of Ridge township, this county, was kicked by a horse and killed instantly. A widow and six children survive.

FIND "BRANDING" TOOLS

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Investigators under County Prosecutor Stanton found the alleged branding tools—a knife and a bottle of ink—in the broom factory where Miss Marie Sanko says the crime was committed. The knife and ink bottle were identified by Miss Sanko as the implements James E. Wild, a former sweetheart, used to tattoo his name on her body.

GIRL KILLED BY BOY

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Mary Wolf, the 11-year-old granddaughter of the late Roger Sullivan, was accidentally shot and killed by her 10-year-old cousin, Roger Sullivan. The child was on horseback on the estate of the Wolf country home, at Tinley Park, when a bullet from a revolver struck her. It was later learned that the shot was fired by the boy, who had found the revolver in one of the Wolf automobiles.

WOMAN DRAWS LIFE TERM

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Bessie Ferguson, 27, was sentenced to the women's reformatory at Marysville for life after she had pleaded guilty before Judge Cull to a charge of second degree murder for the killing of her husband, William, on Oct. 7.

Stouster, O., Nov. 13.—Joe Olah, 65, despondent over his wife's recent death, hanged himself to the little fence about her grave.

MRS. GOULD WILL FIGHT FOR SHARE

Mrs. George J. Gould, the former Genevieve Sinclair, second wife of the late George J. Gould, has returned to New York from Paris to fight for a share of the Gould estate for her children. The children of Mr. Gould by his first wife are fighting to prevent the second Mrs. Gould's children from sharing in the estate on the grounds that they were born while the first Mrs. Gould was still alive and before, of course, Mr. Gould married his second wife.

VON KAHN DEFIES HITLER FORCES IN GERMAN COUP

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The "private armies" in Bavaria made a demand on Dictator Von Kahr that he give a voice in the Bavarian dictatorship to the "Hitlerites."

The demand on behalf of the group of small military organizations was made by Captain Ehrhardt, commander of Ehrhardt's "vikings," who insisted that Von Kahr agree not to molest the Hitler forces. The demand was met with a curt refusal on the part of the Bavarian dictator, who immediately issued a proclamation asserting: "Full executive power in Bavaria rests in my hands, and I consider myself responsible, not only to Bavaria, but to the whole German people for every step. Bavaria shall be the nucleus of the new and honorable German state."

The Social Democratic party sent a demand to the central government that the reichstag be immediately called into session and that some definite program for "maintaining the unity of the reich" be promptly instituted. The Socialists also demanded further currency and exchange reforms.

Adolph Hitler, Bavaria's fascist leader, was arrested at Uffing, on Lake Staffelsee, near the Bavarian Alps.

After the chief of his press department had declared emphatically that there was "not a word of truth in the report," and that on the contrary Hitler was at Kuffstein, his arrest was confirmed at Dictator Von Kahr's headquarters, though it was said that his whereabouts was being kept from the public.

It was reported that after Hitler's arrest he had been concealed at a farm house and later transferred to a prison at Landsberg.

Ernst Hanstaengel, New York art dealer, one of Hitler's chief aides, is said to be the leader at Kuffstein who is attempting to rally the Hitler followers.

There is less excitement in Munich and the "movement" is believed to be dying out.

TO FLY TO NORTH POLE

Washington, Nov. 13.—Lieutenant Ralph E. Davison, Missouri boy chosen by the navy department to fly next summer from Spitzbergen to the north pole with Roald Amundsen, will soon be assigned to duty in cold regions to steel him for his task. Davison is now a valued member of the naval air force at the Pensacola station, and is feared that should he be allowed to continue on duty in Florida he might become physically unfitted to withstand the rigors of the far north.

REPORT THAT PASSPORTS SENT FORMER EMPEROR BY BERLIN IS UNCONFIRMED

Much Bustle and Activity at the Home of Wilhelm in Holland—Powers Bringing Pressure to Bear Upon Dutch Government.

Doorn, Nov. 13.—Official denial was made here today that a passport has been granted to the ex-kaiser to enable him to return to Germany.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The United States government will not protest individually or join in an allied protest against the return of the German kaiser or members of his family to Germany, it was announced officially at the White House this afternoon.

Oels, Prussian Silesia, Nov. 13.—Former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm arrived at his Silesian estates today and rejoined his family. Since crossing the German frontier he traveled in leisurely fashion by motor car with the evident intention of throwing correspondents off the track.

London, Nov. 13.—Foreign office officials said today the Allies would hold Holland to strict accountability, to prevent the former kaiser from leaving that country for Germany.

Up to early afternoon the foreign office was without official confirmation of the Brussels report that the Berlin government had granted passports to Wilhelm and his immediate entourage to return to Germany.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—There is much bustle and activity at the home of the former German kaiser at Doorn, according to information from that town today.

It was reported that the ex-kaiser and his family were preparing for a journey.

The report that a courier arrived at Doorn from Berlin with 12 German passports enabling Wilhelm and his entourage to cross the German frontier is not yet officially confirmed but is given credit.

The allied powers are bringing pressure upon the Dutch government to prevent the departure of the ex-kaiser. So far as known, the Dutch government has not yet granted formal permission to Wilhelm to leave the country.

Private advices from Doorn, received by the Agence Telegraphique Belge, said that a courier, von Hoechst, arrived at Doorn at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with 12 German passports for the ex-kaiser and his immediate entourage.

A telegram in cipher was received there in the morning, and early in the afternoon there was a long conference between Wilhelm and some close to him. Later a high Dutch official, Dr. Kan, of the ministry of the interior, called and was closeted with the former emperor for 35 minutes.

Late dispatches from Doorn, where Emperor Wilhelm has resided since his internment in Holland, announced that he was maintaining close relations with the leaders of the German monarchist movement and was said to be hopeful that events in Germany would turn in his favor.

MELLON PLAN IS FAVORED BY SOLONS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's plan for sweeping tax reductions has the approval of leaders in congress, he revealed. The moment the reductions become effective, Mellon said, the country will witness an immediate decline in the cost of living. As an instance, he pointed out, the railroads, now hard pressed to pay dividends and taxes, would be enabled to borrow money at a lower rate of interest. As a result, he believes, there will be a reduction in the high freight rates on all commodities, now a big factor in the maintenance of high prices. The big attraction for the proposal, he feels, is that which would reduce the highest brackets, or surtaxes, to twenty-five per cent. He said the present system has proved a failure because where the government expected to collect a vast sum, the real wealth is escaping taxation altogether.

FARM HAND FACES CHARGE OF MURDER

Ottawa, O., Nov. 13.—Charles Shank, 40, farm laborer, went on trial here charged with the first degree murder of Mrs. William Tenwalde, 39, mother of the girl he loved. His plea will be self-defense, according to statements of his attorneys. He will claim Mrs. Tenwalde so provoked him that he lost self-control. According to statements of eyewitnesses to the murder made at the coroner's investigation, Shank, before killing Mrs. Tenwalde, shot and killed Olivia Tenwalde, 18, unmarried, mother of his 16 months' old child, and the girl's cousin, Lawrence Tenwalde, 23. The shooting occurred on the Tenwalde farm, five miles west of here.

JAPANESE ARE NOT PERMITTED TO OWN LAND IN CALIFORNIA

Washington, Nov. 13.—The United States supreme court upheld the state laws of California and Washington prohibiting Japanese from owning or leasing lands in those states.

In the Washington case, which was used as a precedent for the California decision, the court declared: "Each state, in the absence of any treaty provision conferring the right, may enact laws prohibiting aliens from owning land within its borders. Under the right to own or lease land is given by the treaty, no question of conflict can arise."

The Washington case brought into question the commerce and navigation treaty between the United States and Japan, it being contended in the test suit that the state act was in conflict with this treaty. The court held:

"The state act, in our opinion, is not in conflict with the treaty between the United States and Japan. The preamble declares it to be a 'treaty of commerce and navigation,' and indicates that it was entered into for the purpose of establishing the rules to govern the commercial intercourse between the two countries. The only provision that relates to owning or leasing land is the first paragraph of Article 1, which is as follows: 'The citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have liberty to enter, travel and reside in the territories of the other, to carry on trade, wholesale or retail, to own or lease and occupy houses, manufacturers, factories, warehouses, and to employ agents, etc.'"

"If the language left the treaty provisions obscure, the court finds the letter of Secretary of State Bryan to Viscount Uchida, July 16, 1916, shows that it was in accordance with the wish of Japan that the right to own land was not conferred by the treaty."

In the California decision the court declared: "The treaty between the United States and Japan does not confer upon Japanese subjects the privilege of acquiring or leasing land for agricultural purposes. In the case before us the prohibited class includes ineligible aliens only. In the matter of classification the states have wide discretion. Each has its own problems, depending on circumstances existing there. It is not always practical or desirable that legislation shall be the same in different states. We can not say that the failure of the California legislature to extend the prohibited class so as to include eligible aliens who have failed to declare their intentions to become citizens of the United States was arbitrary or unreasonable."

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

OWNING AN INTEREST IN A BUSINESS INVOLVES RISK

A SHARE OF STOCK REPRESENTS SUCH OWNERSHIP

A common stock can never be strictly an investment. The risk of ownership is always present.

Buying a share of stock in a business is similar to buying an interest in a store.

If a man bought an interest in a small store, he would think he was taking big chances if he could not be on hand to see how the store was run. Yet, when he buys a share of stock and then pays no attention to the business, he is doing the same thing. Usually all he watches is the market price of the stock.

If he bought an interest in a store would he just spend his time, watching how much some one else would give him for it? It is hard to convince people that common stocks are not investments in the strictest sense of the word.

YOUNGSTOWN FIRM ROBBED OF $2,000

Williams was bound hand and foot and left in rear room of the bank.

New York, Nov. 13.—Three bandits held up Morgan Morrison, cashier of the Ward Baking Company, in the vestibule of the company's plant in Brooklyn today and stole payroll money amounting to approximately $17,500.

LARGE NEIGHBOR THREATENED MAN LATER FOUND DEAD

Lebanon, O., Nov. 13.—Russell Sunday, of Dayton, whose body was found in the little Miami river near here October 28, had been threatened with death by Guy Bryant, a neighbor, because of an alleged love affair between Sunday and Bryant's wife, it was charged by witnesses at an inquest held here by Coroner H. E. Dilatash. Placed on the stand, Bryant denied these charges.

The charges against Bryant were made by Mrs. Ruth Petrie, of Dayton and Hosia Sunday, Columbus, sister and brother of the victim.

Mrs Bryant denied the love affair, but admitted that on two occasions, when Sunday lived in Norwood, O., as "Raymond Richards," she had visited him. She also admitted that she had written Sunday a number of letters and that she gave him a necktie last Christmas.

The inquest is to be resumed next Friday.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

DON'T YOU GO WRONG
What if some men oppress the weak
And some are churlish when they speak,
What if some lie and cheat and steal
And profit by some shady deal,
What if some false men fools the throng,
Don't you go wrong!

What if dishonor seems to pay,
If some embezzler gets away,
Or if by favor some men climb
While patient merit bides his time,
Nothing that's false can live for long,
Don't you go wrong!

What if you fancy now and then
Life is unfair to earnest men,
That cheats grow rich and sham grows great,
Let love of right not turn to hate;
Against false whisperings be you strong,

Don't you go wrong!

You merely see the outward show
And not the suffering below,
You see the profit false men gain
But not the torment and the pain,
For cheats there is no merry song,
Don't you go wrong!

Let them grow rich, as oft they will,
Liars and cheats are liars still;
Still false is glory falsely gained,
Still shameful that by shame attained.
Nothing that's base can live for long,
Don't you go wrong!

MEMBERSHIPS FOR RED CROSS GIVEN BY ORGANIZATIONS

Two more memberships were received Monday for the 1924 Roll Call, when the Kiwanis Club enrolled for a fifty dollar membership and the local lodge of Moose signed for a $10 membership.

Members of the Kiwanis club suggested that the membership be used in connection with the school inspection of children the Kiwanis International being pledged to give the underprivileged child a square deal. This was in view of the fact that the Red Cross Public Health Nurse, inspected 1,773 school children and gave help to many underprivileged children, last year.

The Moose Lodge did not specify what should be done with its membership, but it also has had interest in the clinics for children, especially the tonsil and adenoid removal clinics wherein 27 children were given surgical treatment.

Dr. A. M. Patterson, who with County Auditor R. O. Wead, is organizing the Business Section of Xenia, said Monday "I have found a most hearty response and everyone seems willing to have a part in his enrollment. We worked a good part of this morning in organization and find folks interested in Red Cross."

Several business men have given special window displays to the Roll Call. There are three showing school inspection, soldier work and the Junior Red Cross which has an enrollment of nearly 800 school children in the county.

The quota for Greene County in the Roll Call is $4,000; the same as last year. It is divided as follows: Beavercreek, $217; Sugar Creek, $125; Jefferson, $194; Cedarville, $295; Bath, Fairfield, $99 and Osborn $99; Silvercreek, $212; Spring Valley, New Burlington $49; Spring Valley, $151; New Jasper $81; Caesarscreek, $131; Miami, $252; Ross, $160; Xenia City, $2,000. The total quota of $4,000 is the same as last year.

INSPECT POULTRY FLOCKS IN COUNTY

G. S. Vickers, poultry extension specialist at Ohio State University, Columbus, was in Greene County last week, and with County Agent Ford S. Prince, inspected and culled five poultry flocks, the owners of which have applied for poultry flock certification.

For certification the farmers must own flocks of known laying capacity, producing 120 eggs or more per year, headed by certified cockerels, birds ship.

produced from eggs, from trap-nested hens, the latter hens, having a record of 200 eggs or more per year. The flock owners, who have applied are Mrs. Elmer Hetsel, Xenia; Miss Helen Finney, Cedarville; Miss Helen Ankney, Beavercreek; Mrs. May Wood Turner, Miami; and Joseph Harner, Bath township.

A meeting of the owners with the other five poultry keepers of the county, who have kept records for a year, was held at the Farm Bureau office, Tuesday night. The other poultry keepers are Stephen Stedman, Beavercreek; Miss Margaret Thomas, Sugar Creek; Mrs. G. M. Keach, Silver Creek; Mrs. Lelah C. Hoover, and Mrs. Ray Garringer, Jefferson township.

Many People Wait for an Actual Loss or Receivership to Occur Before They Think Seriously of the Safety of Their Money. Too Late Then.

While things are booming, opportunities to make more than normal interest look vastly different than they are shown to be when conditions have settled down.

THEY OUGHT TO BE GIVEN "TIT FOR TAT"

Fifty Thousand American travelers sailed for Europe between April 15 and July 15 of this year. The majority of these tourists are said to have "holiday-ed" in France, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Hungary and Austria, where their American money went further than it would have gone in Holland, Great Britain, Switzerland and other countries with a higher exchange. But all these countries got a handsome participation in the annual American dividend.

Louis J. Garcey, who represents the International Sleeping Car Company (the Cosmopolitan Binder of the peoples of Continental Europe,) upon returning to New York City from a tour of the Old World said: "In France, Belgium and Italy the hotels were full. Never before have the hotels reaped such a harvest."

The International Hotel Alliance, composed of bonifaces from fourteen nations, will meet in New York City this month. Some 200 delegates from foreign shores are the guests of our American hotel men, who have announced plans for spending "more than $100,000" on them during their two weeks' stay in the United States.

"The visitors from abroad will be able to 'park' their pocket-books during their American tour," is a sentence lifted intact from the program of entertainment.

Perhaps we are not alone in the feeling that no matter how hard we may endeavor we cannot make the heart force the mind to order the hands to write "Welcome!" in full-faced caps. It is a visitation we cannot get wildly excited about.

A Park Row editor said he had planned to have the first snapshot photograph of a European hotel man making a purchase in America. Now that feature apparently has been squelched by American hospitality.

CHINESE BANDITS.

Major R. W. Pinger, U. S. A., who was held captive by bandits in the Shantung province for 37 days last spring, and who has arrived in San Francisco on the army transport Grant, says banditry is a business in China and the kidnapping feature of such business. He says: "All of the lower classes in Shantung take part in bandit raids occasionally. Kidnapping foreigners and holding them for ransom is the only way that some of the coolies have of obtaining money. Of the 2,500 who captured our party only a few hundred were professional robbers. The others were simply half wild ex-farmers, who had been driven to banditry because of the destruction of their farms." Major Pinger, a graduate of the University of California, has been detailed as professor of military science and tactics at that institution.

FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

A Washington newspaper writer of considerable note addressed an educational gathering recently and observed that the United States is suffering in the world's opinion, from a lack of a vigorous foreign policy, that our leaders lack vision, that Europe's turmoil is largely due to the failure of the United States to join the league of nations, and that peace would be secured the world over forthwith, if the United States entered Europe and took hold of the situation.

Such statements are not only a misrepresentation of the stand of the United States, but a reflection upon the good sense and honesty of America whose destiny just now rests in the hands of the present administration.

In the first place, the foreign policy of the United States for two and a half years, has been eminently dignified and calm. The sensational pleas of emotional people have not turned the responsible heads from a straight and resolute path, keeping in mind the responsibilities of the United States Government to the American people, as well as to the world.

The tragic situation in a large part of Europe has been close to the heart of this nation. The authorities have not been unmindful of the suffering and torture of the millions, amid hate, jealousy and greed, all the products of war.

The foreign policy of the United States has been for peace through understanding; but peace can come only to individuals and to nations in a receptive and peaceful state of mind.

No program looking to peace can be effective so long as human nature remains unchanged and fighting is inherent.

Every important step taken by the present administration for two and a half years has been in the direction of peace. The arms conference is an example.

Failure to accept the advice of some to plunge into Europe is not evidence of disinterestedness; it is the result of American tradition not to mangle in the political affairs of Europe, and not to undertake a joint reformation of Europe's economic muddle unless asked.

U. S. KEEPING ALOOF IN CUBAN AGITATION.

This Government's attitude toward the political situation in Cuba is one of watchful waiting.

For more than a month the island has seemed to be on the verge of revolution. Abandonment by the Zayas Administration of the salient features of the moralization program, recommended to him by the American Government, is understood to be responsible for the policy of this Government, which is to permit the Cubans to work out, if they can, their own political salvation.

General Crowder, American Ambassador to Cuba, whose prolonged leave of absence in this country is thought to be occasioned in part by the island-wide agitation for radical governmental reforms, is presenting a problem to President Zayas. His absence from Havana is interpreted there as a disinclination on the part of this Government to be obliged to indicate formally to the Cuban Administration the attitude of the United States. That interpretation is favorable to the reform elements.

The declaration of General Garcia Velez, head of the Veterans and Patriots, whose organization has taken on a revolutionary character, that he was unwilling to strike a blow until it might unsettle Zayas and not subject the island to a long internecine struggle is taken here to mean that he is planning a coup d'etat.

It is impossible to obtain an official intimation of how this Government would view the setting up of a provisional government in Cuba, but there is reason to believe that no step has been taken and no word spoken to discourage the reformers. The impression is that a reform government would receive de facto recognition, provided its advent should not be accompanied by civil warfare.

In all probability a violent revolution in Cuba would necessitate American intervention, and this the Veterans and Patriots, as well as President Zayas, wish to avoid.

Reader Friend: "Can you give me the directions for the new crocheted 'Aviation Cap,' for babies?"

Answer: I am sorry to say that I do not know anything about this new kind of cap; nor have I been able to find anyone who has such directions. But let us hope that some other reader may have them and will be kind enough to send them to me, in care of this paper, so that I can publish them.

A Housekeeper: "My floors need waxing, but I really cannot afford to buy the prepared floor wax sold in stores. Can you tell me how to make a good floor wax at home? Also advise me concerning my stairs as they are not hard wood, I have to varnish them frequently and I would like to know if you think the varnish would stay on longer if rubbed with wax?"

Answer: To make your own floor wax: Melt one-fourth pound of beeswax over boiling water, and when melted remove from range and stir into it one pint of turpentine. Stir till the mixture is like a thick batter, then put it into a jar to be used when needed.

No, I do not advise you to wax your varnished stairs. It is very dangerous to do that, because of the slipperiness. I believe in stair carpets if one can manage to afford them. Until then you will just have to keep on varnishing the stair periodically.

THE BEAUTY OF "JUST GRASS"

We have schooled ourselves to an acceptance of so much in this world that is seemingly commonplace, that we miss much that is anything but commonplace.

"Just grass," for instance. You who have crossed plains and deserts, know how thrilling just grass is the minute you get in view of it again after an absence from it.

And then to view great valleys of grass with their massed foliage, or to pass great lawns of fine estates or grass as beautifully kept in the parks of the towns and cities, is to bring the beauty of just grass home to one again and again.

It shows what a supreme artist the Creator was when He chose green for the color for grass and made it so universal a carpet for the earth.

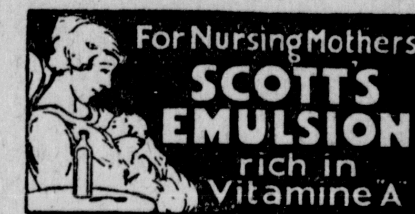

Human beings have qualities as seemingly commonplace as just grass, which the world is very slow to recognize and fully credit. Take the commonplace virtues of kindness, thoughtfulness, cheerfulness, open dealing

—we think little of them until we are placed squarely against their opposites.

The phrase "just human" quite squares with "just grass."

Genuine friendship is always raised in beauty and nobleness the minute that we fully appreciate the fine commonplace qualities of our friend, in the same way that the world grows in beauty as we come to appreciate just grass, just trees, just flowers, just rivers, just hills, just roads.

Have you never felt the restfulness and contentment of a grazing herd of cows or sheep in a green velveted pasture hid behind a thick wood, or completely surrounded by it?

BUSINESS SECTION OF TOWN DESTROYED

Mogadore, Nov. 13.—After an all night fight with flames the business section of this village is virtually a mass of ruins, most of the principle buildings and stores having been burned. Four structures housing the Eagles' Hall, a meat market, Sons of Veterans Hall, Town Hall, Jail, Court and Dry Goods Store and one dwelling were destroyed. The blaze started from an overheated stove in the two story frame dwelling of George Anderson. Five families lived in the building, all members of which escaped unharmed but lost all their household effects.

An engine company from Akron was called after it was seen that the local department and bucket brigades could not halt the spread of the fire.

TENDENCY IS TOWARD LOOSER OVERCOATS

Overcoat styles for the coming winter are showing more marked changes than for several seasons past.

The trend is quite definitely toward looser coats, either the full box style or the half belted models. Both are shown in the illustration above.

You'll note that the coat openings are lower than usual; lapels are a trifle wider. Patch pockets with flaps are in general favor. The skirts of the coats are full. Buttons are placed lower on the coat. These are the main style details. Now for the woollens.

Rich, fleecy fabrics, either imported or from the best American weavers, are still very popular, and many attractive variations have been developed in the fancy-back materials.

BITTERLY ASSAILS RADICAL BELIEFS AS DANGER TO U. S.

Speaking rapidly and with an amazing attitude of phraseology and ability to expound logic, Peter W. Collins, Massachusetts, lecturer for the Knights of Columbus, bitterly and unequivocally assailed Bolshevism, Communism, Red Radicalism, Sovietism and I. W. W.ism which he claims to constitute a real danger to the peace and prosperity of America, speaking under the auspices of Xenia Council, K. of C., at the new Central High School, Monday night.

A crowd that practically filled the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium, estimated at about 900 people, heard the lecturer under the title "What America Means to Us." The speaker served as an industrial expert with the government during the war, an active labor executive many years before it, and is the first and only expert on the various "isms" to be called before any legislative or judicial tribunal, testifying in the famous New York investigation three days.

"We are living in a progressive age," Mr. Collins said, "yet an age of many fads, fancies and 'isms,' which are misleading many thousands of men in the belief that they are the answer to that question heard so much now: 'What is wrong with the World?'"

Bolshevism, the speaker declared, is the doctrine of international and class hatred, being the outgrowth of the communism of Karl Marx. He declared Bolshevism speaks in two languages—that of the universities, and that of the soap box radical. The former, he declared, is masked under high sounding titles, which essentially means the denial of a Creator, the denial of a Supreme Being and, in fact, the denial of Almighty God Himself. "Bolshevism," said Mr. Collins, "pretends to be the doctrine of and for workers, but this doctrine of a denial of a Supreme Being, could not and did not come from the working classes, because the working people are spiritual."

Bolshevism came into use as the name for the original Marx communism about 20 years ago, he said, and is the doctrine of hatred and viciousness, wrecking now the institutions of the Old World. The denial of God, he said, is the foundation of all "isms." "The Soviet abolished religious freedom in Russia just as groups in our country are trying to do now," said Mr. Collins.

"I care not what evil in civilization there may be, it was brought about by breaking some one of the Ten Commandments," said Mr. Collins. "What we need today is the instilling into the hearts and souls of people a recognition of the spirit of the Commandments. I say to those evils of destruction and hatred that as the Ten Commandments have been the Leasons of light for centuries, they will still be doing business at the old stand, when the grass is growing over the graves of Bolshevism."

Mr. Collins said there is a consistent effort toward harmony in the relations between capital and labor, each believing the other has its rights and its proper place. The speaker made a plea for better salaries for school teachers and postal employees.

Strife and bitterness, arraying neighbor against neighbor, is being manufactured in America now, said Mr. Collins. "God gives to every human a free will and conscience with the inherent right to worship according to the dictates of his conscience. This is not only God-given, but guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States," he said. "Yet we find groups with paid organizers, manufacturing hatred and bitterness. That is not the kind of spirit that America stands for. A community stops dead in its progress that lets religious bigotry be manufactured and spread within it. The history of the dead town is the story of where religious hatred has been, allowed to grow."

"Communities need the cooperation of Jew and Gentile, white and black, Catholic and Protestant. From the day Columbus, a Catholic, discovered America, it was peace and harmony of all that has made America progress and must continue to do so in the face of this present danger."

"I am not here to apologize for the Catholic Church—it needs no apology. For 2,000 years it has been on the witness stand, giving testimony and has never failed. I am not here to apologize for Hebrewism, for the race that gave us Christ, and Mary and Joseph, for it is worthy of the esteem and respect of all. I am not here to apologize for the black man, for in spite of handicaps that would drive one almost to despair, when he was wanted he was there. I am not afraid for the Catholic, the Hebrew or the colored race, but I am afraid for the danger to my country—the danger from sectionalism. We must strive to protect this country, serving together."

From the letters of "America," the speaker presented a creed, with each letter standing for its principles. Concluding his address he invited questions and several were pronounced, dealing with sociological conditions and others pertaining to questions regarding the Catholic religion, which the lecturer answered from the stage. Concluding he said: "Only when you lose interest in your country there is danger. Groups may come to you bearing empty black bags, preaching dissension and hatred and arraying neighbor against neighbor. They collect money with which they fill their bags and go. What do they leave with you? They leave you a streak of poison that it will take 25 years to get rid of."

H. A. Higgins, past Grand Knight of Xenia Council, acted as chairman of the meeting introducing the speaker, referring to his work as industrial director of the Knights of Columbus after the war. Preceding the address, the audience sang one verse of "America," and Miss Eleanor McDonnell accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary McDonnell, sang "My Own United States" and Joyce Kilmer's immortal poem, "Trees," recently set to music.

A Perfect Skin

No Blackheads, no blemishes ever
By Edna Wallace Hopper

Mine is a perfect skin—a skin which young girls envy—at the age of 62. After 40 years as a stage star, I look like a girl of 19.

I owe all this to a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world for methods to multiply my beauty and to keep her youth. Those helps made me a famous beauty, and they keep me a beauty still.

Now I have arranged so every girl and woman may have those identical helps. Thus I hope to bring to millions the benefits I got.

MY FACIAL YOUTH
One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin.

It simply cleanses the skin to the depths, penetrates every pore. When I wipe it off, all the dirt and grime, all that clogs the skin comes with it.

Clean the skin in the best other way you know. My Facial Youth will still remove much extra grime and refuse.

I cover my body with Facial Youth before bathing. Thus I remove much clogging matter which water fails to get.

Apply Facial Youth night and morning, and whenever else the face needs cleaning. You will never find another way to keep the skin so clear.

ONE-FOURTH PRICE
The greatest beauty experts now employ this liquid cleanser. Some supply it to dainty women, but at four times what I charge. No cleansing formula in existence can compare with this. And a clean skin is essential.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is now supplied by all druggists and toilet counters at 75 cents per bottle. Also my Youth Cream—my fruit cold cream. Also my White Youth Clay—the utmost in facial clay. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I urge you to try Facial Youth. Learn what a really clean skin means. Let it do for you what it does for me. You will be amazed. Then, if you want my other helps, they are at your call. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address, Waukesha, Wis.

Note: Miss Hopper is now appearing twice daily in the Pantages Theatres of the Pacific coast and western states.

LECTURER TELLS HOW TO MAINTAIN HEALTH IN TALK

"What is your weight? If you weigh more than you did at thirty you are too fat," said the Rev. Edward Berger last night at the First M. E. Church in the second lecture of his two weeks' series on "Health, Faith, and Psychology."

The speaker, who formerly lived in San Diego, revealed his loyalty to the California slogan, "Water is King," claiming that the bountiful rule of H₂O is as effective for health and beauty of body as to make the desert bloom. "Drink three glasses of pure water when you first get up every morning and you will rarely have to take any medicine before you go to bed at night," said the lecturer. With much dramatic force and considerable humor the road to "Wellville" was pointed out through plenty of water inside and out, moderation in eating, deep breathing, and exercise. The necessity of the last was stressed because present day living is so tremendously abnormal.

Corrective exercises were demonstrated from the platform. They required no apparatus and some can be taken even before rising in the morning "if one wants an excuse for staying in bed a little longer." The speaker pointed to Roosevelt, who as a boy was a physical weakling. When he was thirteen years old a wise physician told the boy that if he would exercise twenty-five minutes a day he would outgrow his weakness. "Teddy," continued the lecturer, "with his bulldog tenacity, undertook and stuck to the job, with the result that seven years later he passed the best physical examination of all the applicants for entrance to Harvard that year."

Special exercises for specific organs of the body were given—some for strengthening the muscles of the eye, others for the neck. Directions were given in brushing the teeth to use rotary motion that will massage the gums as well as clean the crevices between the teeth. The greatest emphasis, however, was placed upon exercises for the trunk as it is here that a sluggish digestion needs speeding up. Deep abdominal breathing was recommended. "Think health thoughts," the speaker concluded. Tuesday night at eight o'clock at the First Methodist Church the topic will be "Man's Mind—Three Stories." Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. the lecturer will speak on "Thoughts About God: Old and New." These lectures are free with a silver offering after each.

LOVE AND DUTY

Chapter 12

Late every afternoon, when the setting sun lay carressingly upon the western horizon, Lee climbed to the rocky cliff as surely as a magnet to the pole. Without apparent thought or planning, the hour had become a stated time of meeting for them, and the high cliff the rendezvous. He knew that Hope would be there to meet him, just as surely as the wind in the pine tree knows that its coming will be answered by the low, soft murmur of the swaying branches.

Sometimes they sat for long minutes in intimate silence. Then again they talked of life in general but with their hearts and minds always acutely conscious of the present which touched them both.

"You love her, don't you?" Hope interrogated one day suddenly breaking the silence.

"You—mean Cynthia?" he questioned. It did not seem to surprise him greatly that Hope had read his most intimate thoughts and feelings, though his references to the "one woman" had never been specific. Yet it seemed as if he had silently laid his heart bare to Hope, and that she must know even the things he had refrained from telling her.

"Yes—" Hope responded hesitatingly, as if she could not quite bring herself to speak Cynthia's name. Some unaccountable feeling, way down deep in her heart, stirred uncomfortably at the sound of it. "You love her?" she repeated.

Lee ran his long fingers through the thickness of the mosses and medistrange, unaccountable things." Lee watched her press her two firm hands together, almost as if she were struggling for self-control, though the calm expression on her face told him nothing.

"That is the difference between love and duty," she went on. "Love makes you do strange, sensely things; duty is all sense and reason—but it's cold and calculating."

"Is your life—your feeling for your husband, all duty; or is it love?" Lee demanded, bending nearer to watch her face.

"Please!" she pleaded, turning away from him. "We are talking about your life now. Mine was settled a long time ago."

"But I'm losing interest in my life," he declared. "My only interest is in yours."

"That's a dangerous interest for both of us," she returned flushing faintly.

Lee turned toward her fiercely and caught her slender hand in his. A consuming fire burned in his blue eyes and Hope sensed the danger in it.

She did not pull her hand away but met his eyes frankly with her own. "Come! Tell me more about this woman, this—Cynthia whom you love."

He dropped her hand and moved away from her with a pained expression on his tense face.

Hope smiled bitterly to herself as she saw that her words had hit him cruelly as she intended that they should when she reminded him of Cynthia.

ALLIES MAKE HOLLAND ACCOUNTABLE FOR KAISER WHO IS NOW REPORTED RETURNING TO GERMANY

FORBES DENIES ON STAND ALL CHARGES MADE

Makes Sweeping and Absolute Statement That Accusations Untrue

Washington, Nov. 13.—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the U. S. Veterans Bureau today began "beating back" against wholesale charges of graft, waste and inefficiency in his administration of Federal aid to disabled soldiers. Arising from a sick bed, Forbes took the witness stand in his own defense before the senatorial investigating committee and entered "a general sweeping and absolute denial" of all accusations against his integrity. He charged his enemies with fomenting a conspiracy to destroy him through "perjury" and suppression of material facts. Forbes scathingly attacked Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, former White House physician, and head of the federal hospital board, charging him with constant interference with the bureau's work. "Most of the deficiencies in the administration of laws providing for relief of disabled soldiers," Forbes declared, "has been due to two things: politics and Sawyer."

Forbes flatly denied much of Sawyer's statement, that he had been "fired by President Harding for insubordination in selling surplus supplies at Perryville."

On the contrary, Forbes declared, he retired from office a month before the Perryville incident, after having told President Harding he would rather resign than stay "if Sawyer was to continue in office."

Forbes read his statement with visible effort before a committee room that was packed with spectators eager to hear him tell his own story. He denied specifically that he had ever turned a dishonest penny in administration of the bureau's affairs or that he engaged in "graft, liquor drinking and loose conduct in office."

"I admit there were imperfections in the bureau under my directorship," said Forbes, "but I do assert I have not consciously been guilty of any wrong doing by and of neglect."

URGES RELIEF FOR STARVING CHILDREN

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Coolidge was urged to ask congress to extend relief to the starving and undernourished children of Germany. Representative Frank R. Funk of Illinois made the recommendation after a careful study of the situation on a recent visit to Germany. He would make $25,000,000 available for the purchase of food and ask Germany to arrange to finance an additional purchase of $24,000,000. The first sum would be put at the disposal of a committee headed by Major General Henry T. Allen, former commander of the American forces of occupation. With the co-operation of Charles G. Dawes, former director of the budget, this committee is now engaged in raising relief funds from private contributions.

Because the reparations commission would prevent the issuance of any government bonds to pay for food, Representative Funk asks that that congress authorize the war finance corporation to enter into negotiations with German municipalities. These municipalities could issue bonds, he said, which could be underwritten by the war finance corporation and used as collateral for the purchase of foods.

CHINA KEY CITY TAKEN BY TROOPS

It's capture is regarded throughout China as the most important development in South China in many months.

AMERICAN TO PLAN RE-BUILDING OF CITY OF YOKOHAMA RAZED BY QUAKE

Dr. C. E. Beard, noted American City Planner, and Mrs. Beard have arrived in Yokohama from San Francisco. They were photographed amid the ruins of the old Yokohama Custom House. Y. M. C. A. DESTROYED BY FIRE IN CLEVELAND; TWO ARE INJURED

Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Earl Staley, 35, of Canton, was overcome by smoke and carried from the building in an unconscious condition when fire destroyed the Wheeling and Lake Erie Y. M. C. A. here today. Byron Yoder, 41, Canton, suffered injuries when he jumped from a second story of the building to the street below.

Staley, an engineer, and Yoder, a fireman, were taken to city hospital.

The fire was discovered by R. E. Cox, a railroad fireman as he was dressing. He notified the clerk on duty, R. E. McCarthy, and then the two rushed through smoke and flame-filled corridors, awakening the sleeping men. Seven men saved themselves by jumping from windows but Yoder was the only man injured in the leap.

Staley was carried down a ladder by firemen after he had fallen unconscious on the floor of his room.

MOVEMENT AGAINST MEXICAN REDS NEAR

Mexico City, Nov. 13.—In an attempt to put an end to the destructive activities of organized "red" labor, which is strongly entrenched throughout the federal district, an ultimatum has been delivered to the headquarters of the "reds" in this city by federal authorities. The action of the authorities followed close on the heels of the discovery of a quantity of dynamite in the gigantic electric power cable at Nacaza, which supplies this city with light and power. This is the second attempt to destroy the cable within a week, both attempts being frustrated by the vigilance of the federal troops stationed nearby. During the past week the "reds" have been circulating printed propaganda among the working classes in an attempt to inflame the minds of the masses against the army and police.

BURNING STEAMER SAVES TWO LIVES ON DESERTED ISLE

Port Clinton, Nov. 13.—Only the fact that the wooden steamer, Wesce, burned to the water's edge off Middle Sister Island yesterday, saved two fishermen, Martin Blossom and Harley Bass, both of Port Clinton, from probable death by starvation, it was revealed today.

The ship was beached on the island and its crew of eighteen men and a woman cook when they landed on the island found the two fishermen weak from starvation having been marooned for 104 hours. They were weak from lack of food. Shortly afterwards the steamer Connaut, which had sighted the burning vessel, took off the entire number and landed them in Sandwich, Ontario, the home port of the Wesce.

Blossom and Bass had been on their way back to Port Clinton from Detroit, piloting a power boat purchased by a Port Clinton man. The boat sprung a leak and they finally landed on Middle Sister island, after a thrilling battle with waves and wind. They found no food except a few onions and carrots washed up by the waves.

CHARGES TREACHERY AGAINST DICTATOR

Munich, Nov. 13.—General Erich Ludendorff charged Dictator Von Kahr with double dealing and treachery when he turned against Adolf Hitler and Ludendorff in the 18-hour revolution of Thursday and Friday. The motive attributed to the Bavarian dictator for his sudden switch is that Von Kahr did not desire the success of the German national movement, but wanted to turn it in favor of a south German monarchy.

Ludendorff was not wounded, did not commit suicide and was not killed on orders from Von Kahr, though all of these rumors were circulated. He is very much alive, and not even broken down or "utterly crushed," as variously reported.

KICKED TO DEATH BY HORSE

MRS. GOULD WILL FIGHT FOR SHARE

Mrs. George J. Gould.

Mrs. George J. Gould, the former Genevieve Sinclair, second wife of the late George J. Gould, has returned to New York from Paris to fight for a share of the Gould estate for her children. The children of Mr. Gould by his first wife are fighting to prevent the second Mrs. Gould's children from sharing in the estate on the grounds that they were born while the first Mrs. Gould was still alive and before, of course, Mr. Gould married his second wife.

VON KAHN DEFIES HITLER FORCES IN GERMAN COUP

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The "private armies" in Bavaria made a demand on Dictator Von Kahr that he give a voice in the Bavarian dictatorship to the "Hitlerites."

The demand on behalf of the group of small military organizations was made by Captain Ehrhardt, commander of Ehrhardt's "vikings," who insisted that Von Kahr agree not to molest the Hitler forces. The demand was met with a curt refusal on the part of the Bavarian dictator, who immediately issued a proclamation asserting: "Full executive power in Bavaria rests in my hands, and I consider myself responsible, not only to Bavaria, but to the whole German people for every step. Bavaria shall be the nucleus of the new and honorable German state."

The Social Democratic party sent a demand to the central government that the reichstag be immediately called into session and that some definite program for "maintaining the unity of the reich" be promptly instituted. The Socialists also demanded further currency and exchange reforms.

Adolph Hitler, Bavaria's fascist leader, was arrested at Uffing, on Lake Staffelsee, near the Bavarian Alps.

After the chief of his press department had declared emphatically that there was "not a word of truth in the report," and that on the contrary Hitler was at Kufstein, his arrest was confirmed at Dictator Von Kahr's headquarters, though it was said that his whereabouts was being kept from the public.

It was reported that after Hitler's arrest he had been concealed at a farm house and later transferred to a prison at Landsberg.

Ernst Hanfstaengl, New York art dealer, one of Hitler's chief aides, is said to be the leader at Kufstein who is attempting to rally the Hitler followers.

There is less excitement in Munich and the "movement" is believed to be dying out.

TO FLY TO NORTH POLE

Washington, Nov. 13.—Lieutenant Ralph E. Davidson, Missouri boy chosen by the navy department to fly next summer from Spitzbergen to the north pole with Roald Amundsen, will soon be assigned to duty in cold regions to steel him for his task. Davidson is now a valued member of the naval air force at the Pensacola station, and is feared that should he be allowed to continue on duty in Florida he might become physically unfitted to withstand the rigors of the far north.

It was later learned that the shot was fired by the boy, who had found the revolver in one of the Wolf automobiles.

REPORT THAT PASSPORTS SENT FORMER EMPEROR BY BERLIN IS UNCONFIRMED

Much Bustle and Activity at the Home of Wilhelm In Holland—Powers Bringing Pressure to Bear Upon Dutch Government.

Doorn, Nov. 13.—Official denial was made here today that a passport had been granted to the ex-kaiser to enable him to return to Germany.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The United States government will not protest individually or join in an allied protest against the return of the German kaiser or members of his family to Germany, it was announced officially at the White House this afternoon.

Oels, Prussian Silesia, Nov. 13.—Former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm arrived at his Silesian estates today and rejoined his family. Since crossing the German frontier he travelled in leisurely fashion by motor car with the evident intention of throwing correspondents off the track.

London, Nov. 13.—Foreign office officials said today the Allies would hold Holland to strict accountability, to prevent the former kaiser from leaving that country for Germany.

Up to early afternoon the foreign office was without official confirmation of the Brussels report that the Berlin government had granted passports to Wilhelm and his immediate entourage to return to Germany.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—There is much bustle and activity at the home of the former German kaiser at Doorn, according to information from that town today.

It was reported that the ex-kaiser and his family were preparing for a journey.

The report that a courier arrived at Doorn from Berlin with 12 German passports enabling Wilhelm and his entourage to cross the German frontier is not yet officially confirmed but is given credit.

The allied powers are bringing pressure upon the Dutch government to prevent the departure of the ex-kaiser. So far as known, the Dutch government has not yet granted formal permission to Wilhelm to leave the country.

Private advices from Doorn, received by the Agency Telegraphique Belge say that a courier, von Hoescht, arrived at Doorn at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon with 12 German passports for the ex-kaiser and his immediate entourage.

A telegram in cipher was received there in the morning, and early in the afternoon there was a long conference between Wilhelm and those close to him. Later a high Dutch official, Dr. Kan, of the ministry of the interior, called and was closeted with the former emperor for 35 minutes.

Late dispatches from Doorn, where Emperor Wilhelm has resided since his internment in Holland, announced that he was maintaining close relations with the leaders of the German monarchist movement and was said to be hopeful that events in Germany would turn in his favor.

Death from gas fumes came to E. W. Cain, 84, and his wife, Addie, 80, who were found dead in bed in their home at Long Beach, Cal.

Grouse, O., Nov. 13.—Joe Olah, 65, despondent over his wife's recent death, hanged himself to the little fence about her grave.

MELLON PLAN IS FAVORED BY SOLONS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's plan for sweeping tax reductions has the approval of leaders in congress, he revealed. The moment the reductions become effective, Mellon said, the country will witness an immediate decline in the cost of living. As an instance, he pointed out, the railroads, now hard pressed to pay dividends and taxes, would be enabled to borrow money at a lower rate of interest. As a result, he believes, there will be a reduction in the high freight rates on all commodities, now a big factor in the maintenance of high prices. The big attraction for the proposal, he feels, is that which would reduce the highest brackets, or surtaxes, to twenty-five per cent. He said the present system has proved a failure because where the government expected to collect a vast sum, the real wealth is escaping taxation altogether.

FARM HAND FACES CHARGE OF MURDER

Ottawa, O., Nov. 13.—Charles Shank, 40, farm laborer, went on trial here charged with the first degree murder of Mrs. William Tenwalde, 39, mother of the girl he loved. His plea will be self-defense, according to statements of his attorneys. He will claim Mrs. Tenwalde so provoked him that he lost self-control. According to statements of eyewitnesses to the murder made at the coroner's investigation, Shank, before killing Mrs. Tenwalde, shot and killed Olivia Tenwalde, 18, unmarried, mother of his 16 months' old child, and the girl's cousin, Lawrence Tenwalde, 23. The shooting occurred on the Tenwalde farm, five miles west of here.

JAPANESE ARE NOT PERMITTED TO OWN LAND IN CALIFORNIA

Washington, Nov. 13.—The United States supreme court upheld the state laws of California and Washington prohibiting Japanese from owning or leasing lands in those states.

In the Washington case, which was used as a precedent for the California decision, the court declared: "Each state, in the absence of any treaty provision conferring the right, may enact laws prohibiting aliens from owning land within its borders. Undoubtedly the right to own or lease land is given by the treaty, no question of conflict can arise."

The Washington case brought into question the commerce and navigation treaty between the United States and Japan, it being contended in the test suit that the state act was in conflict with this treaty. The court held:

"The state act, in our opinion, is not in conflict with the treaty between the United States and Japan. The preamble declares it to be a 'treaty of commerce and navigation,' and indicates that it was entered into for the purpose of establishing the rules to govern the commercial intercourse between the two countries. The only provision that relates to owning or leasing land is the first paragraph of Article 1, which is as follows: 'The citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have liberty to enter, travel and reside in the territories of the other, to carry on trade, wholesale or retail, to own or lease and occupy houses, manufacturers, factories, warehouses, and to employ agents, etc.'"

"If the language left the treaty provisions obscure, the court finds the letter of Secretary of State Bryan to Viscount Uchida, July 16, 1916, shows that it was in accordance with the wish of Japan that the right to own land was not conferred by the treaty."

In the California decision the court declared: "The treaty between the United States and Japan does not confer upon Japanese subjects the privilege of acquiring or leasing land for agricultural purposes. In the case before us the prohibited class includes ineligible aliens only. In the matter of classification the states have wide discretion. Each has its own problems, depending on circumstances existing there. It is not always practical or desirable that legislation shall be the same in different states. We can not say that the failure of the California legislature to extend the prohibited class so as to include eligible aliens who have failed to declare their intentions to become citizens of the United States was arbitrary or unreasonable."

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

OWNING AN INTEREST IN A BUSINESS INVOLVES RISK

A SHARE OF STOCK REPRESENTS SUCH OWNERSHIP

A common stock can never be strictly an investment. The risk of ownership is always present.

Buying a share of stock in a business is similar to buying an interest in a store.

If a man bought an interest in a small store, he would think he was taking big chances if he could not be on hand to see how the store was run. Yet, when he buys a share of stock and then pays no attention to the business, he is doing the same thing. Usually all he watches is the market price of the stock.

If he bought an interest in a store would he just spend his time, watching how much some one else would give him for it? It is hard to convince people that common stocks are not investments in the strictest sense of the word.

YOUNGSTOWN FIRM ROBBED OF $2,000

Youngstown, Nov. 13.—Three heavily armed bandits bound the teller of the Elm street branch of the Dollar Savings and Trust Company Bank at 9:30 a. m. today and escaped with approximately $2,000 of bank funds and a gold watch, the property of Vernon Williams, who was alone in the bank at the time. Williams was bound hand and foot and left in rear room of the bank.

New York, Nov. 13.—Three bandits held up Morgan Morrison, cashier of the Ward Baking Company, in the vestibule of the company's plant in Brooklyn today and stole payroll money amounting to approximately $17,500.

LARGE NEIGHBOR THREATENED MAN LATER FOUND DEAD

Lebanon, O., Nov. 13.—Russell Sunday, of Dayton, whose body was found in the Little Miami river near here October 23, had been threatened with death by Guy Bryant, a neighbor, because of an alleged love affair between Sunday and Bryant's wife. It was charged by witnesses at an inquest held here by Coroner H. E. Dilatush. Placed on the stand, Bryant denied these charges.

The charges against Bryant were made by Mrs. Ruth Petrie, of Dayton and Hosea Sunday, Columbus, sister and brother of the victim. Mrs. Bryant denied the love affair, but admitted that on two occasions, when Sunday lived in Norwood, O., as "Raymond Richards," she had visited him. She also admitted that she had written Sunday a number of letters and that she gave him a necktie last Christmas.

The inquest is to be resumed next Friday.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

DON'T YOU GO WRONG
What if some men oppress the weak
And some are churlish when they speak,
What if some lie and cheat and steal
And profit by some shady deal,
What if some false man fools the throng,
Don't you go wrong!

What if dishonor seems to pay,
If some embezzler gets away,
Or if by favor some men climb
While patient merit bides his time,
Nothing that's false can live for long,
Don't you go wrong!

What if you fancy now and then
Life is unfair to earnest men,
That cheats grow rich and sham grows great,
Let love of right not turn to hate;
Against false whisperings be you strong,

Don't you go wrong!
You merely see the outward show
And not the suffering below,
You see the profit false men gain
But not the torment and the pain,
For cheats there is no merry song,
Don't you go wrong!

Let them grow rich, as oft they will,
Liars and cheats are liars still;
Still false is glory falsely gained,
Still shameful that by shame attained.
Nothing that's base can live for long,
Don't you go wrong!

MEMBERSHIPS FOR RED CROSS GIVEN BY ORGANIZATIONS

Two more memberships were received Monday for the 1924 Roll Call when the Kiwanis Club enrolled for a fifty dollar membership and the local lodge of Moose signed for a $10 membership.

Members of the Kiwanis club suggested that the membership be used in connection with the school inspection of children the Kiwanis International being pledged to give the underprivileged child a square deal. This was in view of the fact that the Red Cross Public Health Nurse, inspected 1,773 school children and gave help to many underprivileged children, last year.

The Moose Lodge did not specify what should be done with its membership, but it also has had interest in the clinics for children, especially the tonsil and adenoid removal clinics wherein 27 children were given surgical treatment.

Dr. A. M. Patterson, who with County Auditor R. O. Wead, is organizing the Business Section of Xenia, said Monday "I have found a most hearty response and everyone seems willing to have a part in his enrollment. We worked a good part of this morning in organization and find folks interested in Red Cross."

Several business men have given special window displays to the Roll Call. There are three showing school inspection, soldier work and the Junior Red Cross which has an enrollment of nearly 800 school children in the county.

The quota for Greene County in the Roll Call is $4,000; the same as last year. It is divided as follows: Beavercreek, $217; Sugar Creek, $125; Jefferson, $134; Cedarville, $295; Bath, Fairfield, $99 and Osborn $99; Silver Creek, $212; Spring Valley, $151; Burlington $49; Spring Valley, $151; New Jasper $51; Caesar Creek, $131; Miami, $252; Ross, $160; Xenia City, $2,000. The total quota of $4,000 is the same as last year.

INSPECT POULTRY FLOCKS IN COUNTY

G. S. Vickers, poultry extension specialist at Ohio State University, Columbus, was in Greene County last week, and with County Agent Ford S. Prince, inspected and culled five poultry flocks, the owners of which have applied for poultry flock certification.

For certification the farmers must own flocks of known laying capacity, producing 120 eggs or more per year, headed by certified cockerels, birds ship.

produced from eggs, from trap-nested hens, the latter hens, having a record of 200 eggs or more per year. The flock owners, who have applied are Mrs. Elmer Hetsel, Xenia; Miss Helen Finney, Cedarville; Miss Helen Ankeney, Beavercreek; Mrs. May Wood Turner, Miami; and Joseph Harner, Bath township.

A meeting of the owners with the other five poultry keepers of the county, who have kept records for a year, was held at the Farm Bureau office, Tuesday night. The other poultry keepers are Stephen Stedman, Beavercreek; Miss Margaret Thomas, Sugar Creek; Mrs. G. M. Keach, Silver Creek; Mrs. Lelah C. Hoover, and Mrs. Ray Garringer, Jefferson township.

Many People Wait for an Actual Loss or Receivership to Occur Before They Think Seriously of the Safety of Their Money. Too Late Then.

While things are booming, opportunities to make more than normal interest look vastly different than they are shown to be when conditions have settled down.

THEY OUGHT TO BE GIVEN "TIT FOR TAT"

Fifty Thousand American travelers sailed for Europe between April 15 and July 15 of this year. The majority of these tourists are said to have "holiday-ed" in France, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Hungary and Austria, where their American money went further than it would have gone in Holland, Great Britain, Switzerland and other countries with a higher exchange. But all these countries got a handsome participation in the annual American dividend.

Louis J. Garcey, who represents the International Sleeping Car Company (the Cosmopolitan Binder of the peoples of Continental Europe), upon returning to New York City from a tour of the Old World said: "In France, Belgium and Italy the hotels were full. Never before have the hotels reaped such a harvest."

The International Hotel Alliance, composed of bonifaces from fourteen nations, will meet in New York City this month. Some 200 delegates from foreign shores are the guests of our American hotel men, who have announced plans for spending "more than $100,000" on them during their two weeks' stay in the United States.

"The visitors from abroad will be able to 'park' their pocket-books during their American tour," is a sentence lifted intact from the program of entertainment.

Perhaps we are not alone in the feeling that no matter how hard we may endeavor we cannot make the heart force the mind to order the hands to write "Welcome!" in full-faced caps. It is a visitation we cannot get wildly excited about.

A Park Row editor said he had planned to have the first snapshot photograph of a European hotel man making a purchase in America. Now that feature apparently has been squelched by American hospitality.

CHINESE BANDITS.

Major R. W. Pinger, U. S. A., who was held captive by bandits in the Shantung province for 37 days last spring, and who has arrived in San Francisco on the army transport Grant, says banditry is a business in China and the kidnapping feature of such business. He says: "All of the lower classes in Shantung take part in bandit raids occasionally. Kidnapping foreigners and holding them for ransom is the only way that some of the coolies have of obtaining money. Of the 2,500 who captured our party only a few hundred were professional robbers. The others were simply half wild ex-farmers, who had been driven to banditry because of the destruction of their farms." Major Pinger, a graduate of the University of California, has been detailed as professor of military science and tactics at that institution.

FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES.

A Washington newspaper writer of considerable note addressed an educational gathering recently and observed that the United States is suffering in the world's opinion, from a lack of a vigorous foreign policy, that our leaders lack vision, that Europe's turmoil is largely due to the failure of the United States to join the league of nations, and that peace would be secured the world over forthwith, if the United States entered Europe and took hold of the situation.

Such statements are not only a misrepresentation of the stand of the United States, but a reflection upon the good sense and honesty of America whose destiny just now rests in the hands of the present administration.

In the first place, the foreign policy of the United States for two and a half years, has been eminently dignified and calm. The sensational pleas of emotional people have not turned the responsible heads from a straight and resolute path, keeping in mind the responsibilities of the United States Government to the American people, as well as to the world.

The tragic situation in a large part of Europe has been close to the heart of this nation. The authorities have not been unmindful of the suffering and torture of the millions, amid hate, jealousy and greed, all the products of war.

The foreign policy of the United States has been for peace through understanding; but peace can come only to individuals and to nations in a receptive and peaceful state of mind.

No program looking to peace can be effective so long as human nature remains unchanged and fighting is inherent.

Every important step taken by the present administration for two and a half years has been in the direction of peace. The arms conference is an example.

Failure to accept the advice of some to plunge into Europe is not evidence of disinterestedness; it is the result of American tradition not to mingle in the political affairs of Europe, and not to undertake a joint reformation of Europe's economic muddle unless asked.

U. S. KEEPING ALOOF IN CUBAN AGITATION.

This Government's attitude toward the political situation in Cuba is one of watchful waiting.

For more than a month the island has seemed to be on the verge of revolution. Abandonment by the Zayas Administration of the salient features of the moralization program, recommended to him by the American Government, is understood to be responsible for the policy of this Government, which is to permit the Cubans to work out, if they can, their own political salvation.

General Crowder, American Ambassador to Cuba, whose prolonged leave of absence in this country is thought to be occasioned in part by the island-wide agitation for radical governmental reforms, is presenting a problem to President Zayas. His absence from Havana is interpreted there as a disinclination on the part of this Government to be obliged to indicate formally to the Cuban Administration the attitude of the United States. That interpretation is favorable to the reform elements.

The declaration of General Garcia Velez, head of the Veterans and Patriots, whose organization has taken on a revolutionary character, that he was unwilling to strike a blow until it might unseat Zayas and not subject the island to a long internecine struggle is taken here to mean that he is planning a coup d'etat.

It is impossible to obtain an official intimation of how this Government would view the setting up of a provisional government in Cuba, but there is reason to believe that no step has been taken and no word spoken to discourage the reformers. The impression is that a reform government would receive de facto recognition, provided its advent should not be accompanied by civil warfare.

In all probability a violent revolution in Cuba would necessitate American intervention, and this the Veterans and Patriots, as well as President Zayas, wish to avoid.

C. M.: "Can you tell me what kind of overdrapes to have at my living room windows? The furniture is mahogany with leather upholstery, the wall-paper brown. I cannot afford anything expensive."

Answer: A brown-and-gold color scheme is the right one for the room. Or the popular "Autumn Color Scheme," which consists of a mixture of all the Autumn tree colors put together—deep reds, browns, a touch of gold and ecru, and deep greens. (Often one can find cretonne which combines these colors.) There is nothing like cretonne for inexpensive overdrapes. But in a living room you should have some conventional design—not roses or other flowers. By a conventional design, I mean a formal pattern of, say, squares, diamonds, stripes, Fleur de Lis or these designs combined in some way.

If it were my living room I would have cretonne overdrapes (consisting of one long curtain on either side of the window and a short ruffle—valance—across the top) in a brown-and-ecru mixture, and I would have gold or yellow articles about the room in various places, for instance, a yellow pottery vase, a brass candlestick holding a yellow candle, a buff-colored velvet cushion in a chair, and a yellow shade for the droplight.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system, the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Answer: I am sorry to say that I do not know anything about this new kind of cap; nor have I been able to find anyone who has such directions. But let us hope that some other reader may have them and will be kind enough to send them to me, in care of this paper, so that, I can publish them.

A Housekeeper: "My floors need waxing, but I really cannot afford to buy the prepared floor wax sold in stores. Can you tell me how to make a good floor wax at home? Also advise me concerning my stairs as they are not hard wood, I have to varnish them frequently and I would like to know if you think the varnish would stay on longer if rubbed with wax?"

Answer: To make your own floor wax: Melt one-fourth pound of bees-wax over boiling water, and when melted remove from range and stir into it one pint of turpentine. Stir till the mixture is like a thick batter, then put it into a jar to be used when needed.

No, I do not advise you to wax your varnished stairs. It is very dangerous to do that, because of the slipperiness. I believe in stair carpets if one can manage to afford them. Until then you will just have

THE BEAUTY OF "JUST GRASS"

We have schooled ourselves to an acceptance of so much in this world that is seemingly commonplace, that we miss much that is anything but commonplace.

"Just grass," for instance. You who have crossed plains and deserts, know how thrilling just grass is the minute you get in view of it again after an absence from it.

And then to view great valleys of grass with their massed foliage, or to pass great lawns of fine estates or grass as beautifully kept in the parks of the towns and cities, is to bring the beauty of just grass home to one again and again.

It shows what a supreme artist the Creator was when He chose green for the color for grass and made it so universal a carpet for the earth.

Human beings have qualities as seemingly commonplace as just grass, which the world is very slow to recognize and fully credit. Take the commonplace virtues of kindness, thoughtfulness, cheerfulness, open dealing

—we think little of them until we are placed squarely against their opposites.

The phrase "just human" quite squares with "just grass."

Genuine friendship is always raised in beauty and nobleness the minute that we fully appreciate the fine commonplace qualities of our friend, in the same way that the world grows in beauty as we come to appreciate just grass, just trees, just flowers, just rivers, just hills, just roads.

Have you never felt the restfulness and contentment of a grazing herd of cows or sheep in a green velvet pasture hid behind a thick wood, or completely surrounded by it?

BUSINESS SECTION OF TOWN DESTROYED

Mogadore, Nov. 13.—After an all night fight with flames the business section of this village is virtually a mass of ruins, most of the principle buildings and stores having been burned. Four structures housing the Eagles' Hall, a meat market, Sons of Veterans Hall, Town Hall, Jail, Court and Dry Goods Store and one dwelling were destroyed. The blaze started from an overheated stove in the two story frame dwelling of George Anderson. Five families lived in the building, all members of which escaped unharmed but lost all their household effects.

An engine company from Akron was called after it was seen that the local department and bucket brigades could not halt the spread of the fire.

TENDENCY IS TOWARD LOOSER OVERCOATS

Overcoat styles for the coming winter are showing more marked changes than for several seasons past.

The trend is quite definitely toward looser coats, either the full box style or the half belted models. Both are shown in the illustration above.

You'll note that the coat openings are lower than usual; lapels are a trifle wider. Patch pockets with flaps are in general favor. The skirts of the coats are full. Buttons are placed lower on the coat. These are the main style details. Now for the woollens.

Rich, fleecy fabrics, either imported or from the best American weavers, are still very popular, and many attractive variations have been developed in the fancy-back materials.

BITTERLY ASSAILS
RADICAL BELIEFS
AS DANGER TO U. S.

Speaking rapidly and with an amazing attitude of phraseology and ability to expound logic, Peter W. Collins, Massachusetts, lecturer for the Knights of Columbus, bitterly and unequivocally assailed Bolshevism, Communism, Red Radicalism, Sovietism and I. W. W. "ism" which he claims to constitute a real danger to the peace and prosperity of America, speaking under the auspices of Xenia Council, K. of C., at the new Central High School, Monday night.

A crowd that practically filled the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium, estimated at about 900 people, heard the lecturer under the title "What America Means to Us." The speaker served as an industrial expert with the government during the war, an active labor executive many years before it, and is the first and only expert on the various "isms" to be called before any legislative or judicial tribunal, testifying in the famous New York investigation three days.

"We are living in a progressive age," Mr. Collins said, "yet at the same time we are in a period of many fads, 'isms,' which are leading many thousands of men in the belief that they are the answer to that question heard so much now: 'What is wrong with the world?'"

Bolshevism, the speaker declared, is the doctrine of international and class hatred, being the outgrowth of the communism of Karl Marx. He declared Bolshevism speaks in two languages—that of the universities, and that of the soap box radical. The former, he declared, is masked under high sounding titles, which means the denial of a Creator, the denial of a Supreme Being and, in fact, the denial of Almighty God Himself. "Bolshevism," said Mr. Collins, "pretends to be the doctrine of and for workers, but this doctrine of a denial of a Supreme Being, could not and did not come from the working classes, because the working people are spiritual."

Bolshevism came into use as the name for the original Marx communism about 20 years ago, he said, and is the doctrine of hatred and viciousness, wrecking now the institutions of the Old World. The denial of God, he said, is the foundation of all "isms." "The Soviet abolished religious freedom in Russia just as groups in our country are trying to do now," said Mr. Collins.

"I care not what evil in civilization there may be, it was brought about by breaking some one of the Ten Commandments," said Mr. Collins. "What we need today is the instilling into the hearts and souls of people a recognition of the spirit of the Commandments. I say to those evils of destruction and hatred that as the Ten Commandments have been the Leasons of light for centuries, they will still be doing business at the old stand, when the grass is growing over the graves of Bolshevism."

Mr. Collins said there is a consistent effort toward harmony in the relations between capital and labor, each believing the other has its rights and its proper place. The speaker made a plea for better salaries for school teachers and postal employees.

Strife and bitterness, arraying neighbor against neighbor, is being manufactured in America now, said Mr. Collins. "God gives to every human a free will and conscience with the inherent right to worship according to the dictates of his conscience. This is not only God-given, but guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States," he said. "Yet we find groups with paid organizers, manufacturing hatred and bitterness. That is not the kind of spirit that America stands for. A community stops dead in its progress that lets religious bigotry be manufactured and spread within it. The history of the dead town is the story of where religious hatred has been allowed to grow."

"Communities need the cooperation of Jew and Gentile, white and black, Catholic and Protestant. From the day Columbus, a Catholic, discovered America, it was peace and harmony of all that has made America progress and must continue to do so in the face of this present danger."

"I am not here to apologize for the Catholic Church—it needs no apology. For 2,000 years it has been on the witness stand, giving testimony and has never failed. I am not here to apologize for Hebrewism, for the race that gave us Christ, and Mary and Joseph, for it is worthy of the esteem and respect of all. I am not here to apologize for the black man, for in spite of handicaps that would drive one almost to despair, when he was wanted he was there. I am not afraid for the Catholic, the Hebrew or the colored race, but I am afraid for the danger to my country—the danger from sectionalism. We must strive to protect this country, serving together."

From the letters of "America," the speaker presented a creed, with each letter standing for its principles. Concluding his address he invited questions and several were pronounced, dealing with sociological conditions and others pertaining to questions regarding the Catholic religion, which the lecturer answered from the stage. Concluding he said: "Only when you lose interest in your country there is danger. Groups may come to you bearing empty black bags, preaching dissension and hatred and arraying neighbor against neighbor. They collect money with which they fill their bags and go. What do they leave with you? They leave you a streak of poison that it will take 25 years to get rid of."

H. A. Higgins, past Grand Knight of Xenia Council, acted as chairman of the meeting introducing the speaker, referring to his work as industrial director of the Knights of Columbus after the war.

Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" have been proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians over twenty-three years for Colds and gripe misery. Handy boxes of twelve tablets cost only few cents at any drugstore. Each package contains proven directions for Colds and tells how to prepare an Aspirin gargle for sore throat and tonsillitis.

MY FACIAL YOUTH One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin.

It simply cleanses the skin to the depths, penetrates every pore. When I wipe it off, all the dirt and grime, all that clogs the skin comes with it.

Clean the skin in the best other way you know. My Facial Youth will still remove much extra grime and refuse.

I cover my body with Facial Youth before bathing. Thus I remove much clogging matter which water fails to get.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is now supplied by all druggists and toilet counters at 75 cents per bottle. Also my Youth Cream—my fruity cold cream. Also my White Youth Clay—the utmost in facial clay. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I urge you to try Facial Youth. Learn what a really clean skin means. Let it do for you what it does for me. You will be amazed. Then, if you want my other helps, they are at your call. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address, Waukegan, Wis.

Note: Miss Hopper is now appearing twice daily in the Pantages Theatres of the Pacific coast and western states.

A Perfect Skin

No Blackheads, no blemishes ever

By Edna Wallace Hopper

Mine is a perfect skin—a skin which young girls envy—at the age of 62. After 40 years as a stage star, I look like a girl of 19.

I owe all this to a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world for methods to multiply my beauty and to keep her youth. Those helps made me a famous beauty, and they keep me a beauty still.

Now I have arranged so every girl and woman may have those identical helps. Thus I hope to bring to millions the benefits I got.

MY FACIAL YOUTH One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin.

It simply cleanses the skin to the depths, penetrates every pore. When I wipe it off, all the dirt and grime, all that clogs the skin comes with it.

Clean the skin in the best other way you know. My Facial Youth will still remove much extra grime and refuse.

I cover my body with Facial Youth before bathing. Thus I remove much clogging matter which water fails to get.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is now supplied by all druggists and toilet counters at 75 cents per bottle. Also my Youth Cream—my fruity cold cream. Also my White Youth Clay—the utmost in facial clay. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I urge you to try Facial Youth. Learn what a really clean skin means. Let it do for you what it does for me. You will be amazed. Then, if you want my other helps, they are at your call. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address, Waukegan, Wis.

Note: Miss Hopper is now appearing twice daily in the Pantages Theatres of the Pacific coast and western states.

MEMORY OF EDWIN B. COX TO BE PERPETUATED IN ATHLETIC FIELD TO BE DEDICATED FRIDAY

When Xenia Central High School dedicates its new athletic field with the Central-London High football game Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the dream of many high school graduating classes will have been realized and the name of Edwin B. Cox, former beloved school superintendent will have been handed down to posterity.

Special ceremonies will mark the dedication of the Edwin B. Cox Memorial Athletic Field preceding the football game Friday and with these ceremonies there will begin a new era in the history of athletics at the local school John R. Beacham, business manager of the schools, is arranging a program that will fittingly celebrate the day. Students are planning to make the day a gala occasion. The plans of Mr. Beacham include an address by Mr. Hayes Hamilton, lecturer, and president of the class of 1911 of Central High School, the only one of five class presidents who composed the Athletic Field Committee of Graduates of Central High School, which conceived and carried into execution the plan for a memorial athletic field, who is now in the city and available to deliver the address. He will represent the students of many classes, who annually dedicated their class funds that the athletic field might become a reality.

consisted of H. Earl Eavey, George R. Kelly and Harry D. Smith.

Although the fund multiplied with each graduating class, the plan for the athletic field did not take definite form until with the sale of a tract for the new Central High School building, F. W. Dodds, who developed the Dodds Addition and sold the school site, donated six acres of the old Roberts estate to the board for an athletic field.

The money that had amassed was then used to drain, tile, survey and grade the prospective field and to erect goal posts for football and a high fence around the entire athletic site. There was still sufficient money in the fund for the purchase of a section of bleachers and the erection of an ornamental brick entranceway and The George Dodds and Sons Granite Company donated the stone that will cap the entrance pillars, charging only for the work on these caps.

The lettering on one stone gives credit for the field to the graduating classes that made it possible and on the other designates the field as the Edwin B. Cox Memorial Athletic Field. Here Central High School pupils of the future will stage their athletic exhibitions on one of the best high school playing fields boasted by a city of this size in the state. It will be improved from time to time and as athletics branch out at the school, it is proposed to add permanent bleachers, a baseball diamond, a running track and jumping pits to the facilities of the field. These will be made possible quickly if graduating classes continue to devote class funds to the field and if athletics continue on a paying basis, without the aid of the board of education or the taxpayers.

It is exceedingly fitting that the memory of Edwin B. Cox should be perpetuated in an athletic field. A favorite of the boys and girls who attended the public schools during his regime, he would give the athletic field unqualified endorsement as a place for physical expression of the youth of the city, if he were living. Born November 25, 1851, near Osborn, Superintendent Cox attended the schools of the county and later Ohio Wesleyan University, graduating from there with the class of 1874. He was in charge of the Piketon Schools, two years, then spent a year as principal at Ottawa, only to return as head of the Piketon schools for two more years. He came here as science teacher in Central High School in 1879 under former superintendent George W. Welch, who was here three years succeeding George S. Ormsby. Superintendent Cox was appointed to that position in 1882 and died January 23, 1912, rated as one of the foremost educators of the state, and a particularly popular and efficient superintendent.

After the death of Superintendent Cox, citizens also expressed their desire to establish a memorial to the former superintendent and a committee composed of J. F. Orr, Austin M. Patterson, T. J. Kennedy, H. E. Eavey and George R. Kelly, was known as the Edwin B. Cox Memorial Committee. This committee collected $256.15 which it turned over to the board of education with a similar stipulation that it be used for a prospective Cox Memorial Athletic Field.

After the plan was started, each class in turn donate the funds remaining in its possession at graduation to the athletic field, with only slight variance from this program. The money amassed was kept in a building and loan, directed by a board of trustees appointed by the board of education annually. The first board

NEW YORK GIANTS AND BRAVES SWAP

New York, Nov. 12.—Dave Bancroft, captain and shortstop of the Giants, was traded to the Boston Braves to become their manager, replacing Fred Mitchell, who has resigned. "Casey" Stengel, a hero in the last world's series, and Bill Cunningham, an outfielder, go with Bancroft to Boston, and in exchange the Giants will get Billy Southworth, hard hitting Brave outfielder, and Joe Oeschger, a pitcher. The deal was completed at a meeting at the headquarters of the New York club. At Boston Bancroft will play shortstop and will also be captain of the team. Stengel and Cunningham may land regular outfield berths in view of the mediocre talent of the Boston outfit.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

LECTURER TELLS HOW TO MAINTAIN HEALTH IN TALK

"What is your weight? If you weigh more than you did at thirty you are too fat," said the Rev. Edward Berger last night at the First M. E. Church in the second lecture of his two weeks' series on "Health, Faith, and Psychology."

The speaker, who formerly lived in San Diego, revealed his loyalty to the California slogan, "Water is King," claiming that the bountiful rule of H₂O is as effective for health and beauty of body as to make the desert bloom. "Drink three glasses of pure water when you first get up every morning and you will rarely have to take any medicine before you go to bed at night," said the lecturer. With much dramatic force and considerable humor the road to "Wellville" was pointed out through plenty of water inside and out, moderation in eating, deep breathing, and exercise. The necessity of the last was stressed because present day living is so tremendously abnormal.

Corrective exercises were demonstrated from the platform. They required no apparatus and some can be taken even before rising in the morning. "If one wants an excuse for staying in bed a little longer," the speaker pointed to Roosevelt, who as a boy was a physical weakling. When he was thirteen years old a wise physician told the boy that if he would exercise twenty-five minutes a day he would outgrow his weakness. "Teddy," continued the lecturer, "with his bulldog tenacity, undertook and stuck to the job, with the result that seven years later he passed the best physical examination of all the applicants for entrance to Harvard that year."

Special exercises for specific organs of the body were given—some for strengthening the muscles of the eye, others for the neck. Directions were given in brushing the teeth to use rotary motion that will massage the gums as well as clean the crevices between the teeth. The greatest emphasis, however, was placed upon exercises for the trunk as it is here that a sluggish digestion needs speeding up. Deep abdominal breathing was recommended. "Think health thoughts," the speaker concluded. Tuesday night at eight o'clock at the First Methodist Church the topic will be "Man's Mind—Three Stories." Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. the lecturer will speak on "Thoughts About God: Old and New." These lectures are free with a silver offering after each.

LOVE AND DUTY

Chapter 12

Late every afternoon, when the setting sun lay carressingly upon the western horizon, Lee climbed to the rocky cliff as surely as a magnet to the pole. Without apparent thought or planning, the hour had become a stated time of meeting for them, and the high cliff the rendezvous. He knew that Hope would be there to meet him, just as surely as the wind in the pine tree knows that its coming will be answered by the low, soft murmur of the swaying branches.

Sometimes they sat for long minutes in intimate silence. Then again they talked of life in general but with their hearts and minds always acutely conscious of the present which touched them both.

"You love her, don't you?" Hope interrogated one day suddenly breaking the silence.

"You—mean Cynthia?" he questioned. It did not seem to surprise him greatly that Hope had read his most intimate thoughts and feelings, though his references to the "one woman" had never been specific. But he knew that he had spoken the truth partly at least, for there was no denying Cynthia Elliott's subtle hold upon him.

"I—I was nearly positive that you did, but I wanted to know definitely—to have you tell me," said Hope slowly.

Lee looked at her dubitantly, trying to fathom her thoughts.

"If you love her—that's all that matters. You are not being fair to yourself or to her," Hope urged.

Don't—don't take her part, Hope! I love her, yes—but she has been beastly to me!" he agitatedly declared.

"But if you love her that covers everything. Most likely it's her love for you that is making her treat you like this. Love makes women do some
